

Attention All EIF Agencies

May 23, 2022

- Jif is conducting a recall on the majority of their peanut butter due to the possibly of Salmonella contamination.
- EIF will be in contact with any agencies that have received cases of Jif peanut butter from the EIF warehouse.
- All agencies need to check their stock for Jif peanut butter and check to see if it is part of the recalled product. The recall info is located below.
- You will need to check the lot code, located below the best by to date to see if that peanut butter is part of the recall. Reference picture on page 4.
- Any product that is found to be part of the recall needs to be disposed of.
- This recall is for the majority of all Jif product recently produced, if you have any Jif product there is a good chance it is part of this specific recall.
- Please contact EIF if you have any questions.
